11 ANDWANITA HOLLOWAY,

12 Plaintiff(s),

13 v.

14 BERTHA ZEPEDA LOERA, et al.,

15 Defendant(s).

Case No.: 2:19-cv-01726-JAD-NJK

Order

[Docket No. 15]

16 The parties announced more than six months ago that they had reached a settlement 17 resolving this matter. Docket No. 7. Nonetheless, the parties have not dismissed this case and 18 have instead repeatedly asked to delay any action in this matter so that Plaintiff can divvy up 19 insurance policy limits with other plaintiffs in other cases. The parties are again requesting such 20 delay, this time for an additional 90 days, so that an allocation can be negotiated between Plaintiff 21 and these other plaintiffs. Docket No. 15. Perhaps referencing the potential for initiation of an 22 interpleader action involving all claimants, the instant request also references an alternative course 23 that the “policy limits might be tendered to the Court.” Id. at 3. At this juncture, there appears to 24 be no live controversy on the claims in this case and the Court is not inclined to continue allowing 25 this case to gather dust on its docket when it appears the parties may have alternate avenues 26 available to them.

1 Accordingly, the stipulation to extend (Docket No. 15) is hereby DENIED without 2 prejudice. The parties are ORDERED to file, by June 2, 2020, either dismissal papers or a joint 3 plan for this case to be resolved in an expeditious manner.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
